The act of March 4, 1909, going into effect July 1, 1909, provides that the Catalogue of Copyright Entries "shall be admitted in any court as prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein as regards any copyright registration."

Explanations to be noted by users of this Catalogue.

THE Catalogue of Copyright Entries is published in four parts. Part 3, containing the entries for musical compositions and dramatico-musical compositions, is issued at monthly intervals in twelve numbers each year, and is followed by a complete index for the year. The general arrangement is an alphabet of the titles of the musical works with certain exceptions explained hereafter. The arrangement is alphabetical under the first word of the title (except "a," "an," or "the," or the corresponding foreign articles), and a grouping at the end of the title alphabet of such titles as will not conveniently alphabetize (e. g., titles beginning with numerals, dates, etc.)

Exceptions.—(1) In the case of editions of classical music instead of scattering them under the titles, each author's works are brought together by an entry under the original composer's name, and for such works search should be made in this number under the following names: Bach (Johann Sebastian); Balfe (Michael William); Beethoven (Ludwig van); Bizet (Georges); Chaminade (Cécile Louise Stephanie); Chopin (Frédéric François); Gluck (Christoph Wilibald von); Gounod (Charles François); Händel (Georg Friedrich); Haydn (Franz Josef); Leoncavallo (Ruggiero); MacDowell (Edward Alexander); Mendelssohn-Bartholdy (Jacob Ludwig Felix); Mozart (Wolfgang Amadeus); Offenbach (Jacques); Raff (Joseph Joachim); Rubinstein (Anton Gregorovitch); Saint-Saëns (Charles Camille); Schubert (Franz Peter); Schumann (Robert Alexander); Thomas (Charles Louis Ambroise); Tschaikowsky (Peter Iljitch); Verdi (Giuseppe); Wagner (Richard). In the case of all such works, however, there are cross references in the title alphabet from the title of each work.

ILECTIONS having general titles, such as "Fünf studien," "12 études élémentaires," etc., and pieces published without individual identifying titles, but designating the class of musical work (e. g., "waltz," "dance," "march," "cantata," "schottische," "nocturne," "impromptu," "sonata," "étude," "study," "exercise," etc., without differentiating words and only identifiable by the name of the composer) are entered under the composer's name without cross reference from the titles and search should only be made under the names of the composers.

Imprints.—As the publishers of musical compositions are generally also the claimants of copyright the imprint is omitted, but when the name and address of the publisher differ from those of the copyright proprietor, mention of the fact is made at the end of the title as an imprint giving place of publication and name of publisher.

EXPLANATIONS TO BE NOTED BY USERS OF THIS CATALOGUE.

Piano music is understood to be for two hands unless otherwise stated. Songs are understood to be with piano accompaniment unless otherwise stated. Titles reading "w" and "m" (signifying "words by" and "music by") are to be understood as songs.

Under the act of March 4, 1909, the preliminary entry of titles has been abrogated and registration follows deposit of copies with an application for entry in the Copyright Office.

To save space in the Catalogue, the Copyright notice after each title is abbreviated. The abbreviations used in this part are as follows: "E," class E, Musical compositions; "D," class D, Dramatico-musical compositions; "©," implies copyright registration of a published composition, followed by date of publication; "© 1 c.," stands for copyright of an unpublished work, followed by date of receipt in the Copyright Office of the printed or manuscript copy; and "2 c.," for 2 copies, followed by the date of their receipt. In the case of contributions to periodicals only one copy of the issue or issues containing such contributions is required.

A list of the musical compositions and dramatico-musical compositions used or licensed to be used for the manufacture of parts of instruments serving to reproduce mechanically the musical work, recorded under section 1 (e) of the act of March 4, 1909, follows the list of renewals.

The final number, completing the volume, is followed by a full annual index to both composers and proprietors. The subscription price for Part 3, which must be for the complete calendar year, is $1, payable in advance, to the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C., by postal money order, express order, or New York draft.

NOTICE.

The Copyright Act of 1909 provides that of the articles deposited for copyright registration the Librarian of Congress shall determine what books and other articles shall be transferred to the permanent collections of the Library of Congress and what other books or articles shall be transferred to other governmental libraries in the District of Columbia for use therein.

The Act further provides that any article undisposed of as above and still remaining on the shelves of the Copyright Office may be returned to the claimant of copyright under the provisions of section 60 of the Act.

NOTICE is, therefore, hereby given to any author, copyright proprietor, or other lawful claimant, that, in so far as any copyright articles deposited from July 1, 1909, to June 30, 1914, inclusive, are still remaining in the files of the Copyright Office and are not to be transferred to the Library of Congress or to any other governmental library in the District of Columbia, such books or articles may be returned to the claimant of copyright if requested by such claimant prior to December 31, 1925.

This notice includes any printed and published copyright deposits, such as books, periodicals, dramatic compositions, musical compositions, engravings, cuts or prints, lithographs, photo-engravings, or photographs. Manuscripts or typewritten dramas and photographs filed for identifying works of art may not be returned. No maps are available for return.

To secure such possible return the claimant of copyright of record should make formal request for the return of the articles, which must be separately and definitely specified. A suitable blank will be supplied on request. Address REGISTER OF COPYRIGHTS, Library of Congress, Washington, D. C.

RECIPROCAL PROTECTION OF MUSIC AGAINST UNAUTHORIZED REPRODUCTION BY MECHANICAL MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

The United States now has reciprocal copyright protection of music against unauthorized reproduction by mechanical musical instruments in the case of Australia and the territories of Papua and Norfolk Island, Belgium, Canada, Cuba, Denmark, France, Germany, Great Britain, Hungary, Italy, Luxemburg, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, and Sweden. The President's proclamations to this effect were printed in the Catalogue of Copyright Entries, Part 3, vol. 6 (1911), pages v–x of no. 7, and pages iv–v of no. 12; vol. 10 (1915), pages viii–xi of no. 3, and pages viii–ix of no. 4; vol. 12 (1917), pages v–ix of no. 3; vol. 13 (1918), pages vi–xii of no. 5; vol. 15 (1920), pages v–vii of no. 3, and pages vi–xiv of no. 13; vol. 17 (1922), pages vii–xix of no. 6; and vol. 18 (1923), pages vi–vii of no. 3, and pages vi–viii of no. 8.

The copyright convention signed at the Fourth International American Conference at Buenos Aires on August 11, 1910, was proclaimed by the President of the United States on July 13, 1914. This convention is understood to be in effect as between the United States and Bolivia, Brazil, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Guatemala, Haiti. Honduras, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, and Uruguay.

The act of March 4, 1909, going into effect July 1, 1909, provides that the Catalogue of Copyright Entries "shall be admitted in any court as prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein as regards any copyright registration."

Explanations to be Noted by Users of this Catalogue

THE Catalogue of Copyright Entries is published in four parts. Part 3, containing the entries for musical compositions and dramatico-musical compositions, is issued at monthly intervals in twelve numbers each year, and is followed by a complete index for the year. The general arrangement is an alphabet of the titles of the musical works with certain exceptions explained hereafter. The arrangement is alphabetical under the first word of the title (except "a," "an," or "the," or the corresponding foreign articles), and a grouping at the end of the title alphabet of such titles as will not conveniently alphabetize (e. g., titles beginning with numerals, dates, etc.).

EXCEPTIONS.—(1) In the case of editions of classical music instead of scattering them under the titles, each author's works are brought together by an entry under the original composer's name, and for such works search should be made in this number under the following names: Bach (Johann Sebastian); Balfe (Michael William); Beethoven (Ludwig van); Bizet (Georges); Brahms (Johannes); Chaminade (Çéçile Louise Stéphanie); Chopin (Frédéric François); Delibes (Clément Philibert Leo); Donizetti (Gaetano); Gluck (Christoph Wilibald von); Godard (Benjamin Louis Paul); Gounod (Charles François); Grieg (Edvard Hagerup); Händel (Georg Friedrich); Leoncavallo (Ruggiero); Liszt (Franz); MacDowell (Edward Alexander); Massenet (Jules Émile Frédéric); Mendelssohn-Bartholdy (Jacob Ludwig Felix); Moszkowski (Moritz); Mozart (Wolfgang Amadeus); Offenbach (Jacques); Paganini (Niccolo); Palestrina (Giovanni Pierluigi Santo); Raff (Joseph Joachim); Rossini (Gioacchino Antonio); Rubinstein (Anton Gregorovitch); Saint-Saëns (Charles Camille); Schubert (Franz Peter); Schumann (Robert Alexander); Strauss (Richard); Tschaikowsky (Peter Iljitch); Verdi (Giuseppe); Wagner (Richard).

(2) COLLECTIONS having general titles, such as "Fünf studien," "12 études élémentaires," etc., and pieces published without individual identifying titles, but designating the class of musical work (e. g., "waltz," "dance," "march," "cantata," "schottische," "nocturne," "impromptu," "sonata," "étude," "study," "exercise," etc., without differentiating words and only identifiable by the name of the composer) are entered under the composer's name without cross reference from the titles and search should only be made under the names of the composers.

IMPRINTS.—As the publishers of musical compositions are generally also the claimants of copyright the imprint is omitted, but when the name and address of the publisher differ from those of the copyright proprietor, mention of the fact is made at the end of the title as an imprint giving place of publication and name of publisher.

EXPLANATIONS TO BE NOTED BY USERS OF THIS CATALOGUE

Piano music is understood to be for two hands unless otherwise stated. Songs are understood to be with piano accompaniment unless otherwise stated. Titles reading "w" and "m" (signifying "words by" and "music by") are to be understood as songs.

Under the act of March 4, 1909, the preliminary entry of titles has been abrogated and registration follows deposit of copies with an application for entry in the Copyright Office.

To save space in the Catalogue, the Copyright notice after each title is abbreviated. The abbreviations used in this part are as follows: "E," Class E, Musical compositions; "D," Class D, Dramatico-musical compositions; "©," implies copyright registration of a published composition, followed by date of publication; "© 1 c.," stands for copyright of an unpublished work, followed by date of receipt in the Copyright Office of the printed or manuscript copy; and "2 c.," for 2 copies, followed by the date of their receipt. In the case of contributions to periodicals only one copy of the issue or issues containing such contributions is required.

A list of the musical compositions and dramatico-musical compositions used or licensed to be used for the manufacture of parts of instruments serving to reproduce mechanically the musical work, recorded under section 1 (e) of the act of March 4, 1909, follows the list of renewals.

The final number, completing the volume, is followed by a full annual index to both composers and proprietors. The subscription price for Part 3, which must be for the complete calendar year, is $1, payable in advance, to the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C., by postal money order, express order, or New York draft.

NOTICE.

The Copyright Act of 1909 provides that of the articles deposited for copyright registration the Librarian of Congress shall determine what books and other articles shall be transferred to the permanent collections of the Library of Congress and what other books or articles shall be transferred to other governmental libraries in the District of Columbia for use therein.

The Act further provides that any article undisposed of as above and still remaining on the shelves of the Copyright Office may be returned to the claimant of copyright under the provisions of section 60 of the Act.

NOTICE is, therefore, hereby given to any author, copyright proprietor, or other lawful claimant, that in so far as any copyright article deposited from July 1, 1914, to June 30, 1919, inclusive, are still remaining in the files of the Copyright Office and are not to be transferred to the Library of Congress or to any other governmental library in the District of Columbia, such books or articles may be returned to the claimant of copyright if requested by such claimant prior to December 31, 1925.

This notice includes any printed and published copyright deposits, such as books, periodicals, dramatic compositions, musical compositions, engravings, cuts or prints, lithographs, photo-engravings, or photographs. Manuscripts or typewritten dramas and photographs filed for identifying works of art may not be returned. No maps are available for return.

To secure such possible return the claimant of copyright of record should make formal request for the return of the articles, which must be separately and definitely specified. A suitable blank will be supplied on request. Address REGISTER OF COPYRIGHTS, Library of Congress, Washington, D. C.

RECIPROCAL PROTECTION OF MUSIC AGAINST UNAUTHORIZED REPRODUCTION BY MECHANICAL MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

The United States now has reciprocal copyright protection of music against unauthorized reproduction by mechanical musical instruments in the case of Australia, and the territories of Papua and Norfolk Island, Austria, Belgium, Canada, Cuba, Denmark, France, Germany, Great Britain, Hungary, Italy, Luxemburg, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, and Sweden. The President's proclamations to this effect were printed in the Catalogue of Copyright Entries, Part 3, vol. 6 (1911), pages v–x of no. 7, and pages iv–v of no. 12; vol. 10 (1915), pages viii–xi of no. 3, and pages viii–ix of no. 4; vol. 12 (1917), pages v–ix of no. 3; vol. 13 (1918), pages vi–xii of no. 5; vol. 15 (1920), pages v–vii of no. 3, and pages vi–xiv of no. 13; vol. 17 (1922), pages vii–xix of no. 6; and vol. 18 (1923), pages vi–vii of no. 3, pages vi–viii of no. 8; and vol. 20 (1925), pages vii–viii of nos. 3–4.

The copyright convention signed at the Fourth International American Conference at Buenos Aires on August 11, 1910, was proclaimed by the President of the United States on July 13, 1914. This convention is understood to be in effect as between the United States and Bolivia, Brazil, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, and Uruguay.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

Whereas it is provided by the Act of Congress approved March 4, 1909, entitled "An Act to amend and consolidate the Acts respecting Copyright," that the copyright secured by the Act, except the benefits under section 1 (e) thereof as to which special conditions are imposed, shall extend to the work of an author or proprietor who is a citizen or subject of a foreign state or nation, only upon certain conditions set forth in section 8 of the said Act, to wit:

(a) When an alien author or proprietor shall be domiciled within the United States at the time of the first publication of his work; or

(b) When the foreign state or nation of which such author or proprietor is a citizen or subject grants, either by treaty, convention, agreement, or law, to citizens of the United States the benefit of copyright on substantially the same basis as to its own citizens, or copyright protection substantially equal to the protection secured to such foreign author under this Act or by treaty; or when such foreign state or nation is a party to an international agreement which provides for reciprocity in the granting of copyright, by the terms of which agreement the United States may, at its pleasure, become a party thereto;

And whereas it is provided by section 1 (e) of the said Act of Congress, approved March 4, 1909, that the provisions of the Act "so far as they secure copyright controlling the parts of instruments serving to reproduce mechanically the musical work shall include only compositions published and copyrighted after this Act goes into effect, and shall not include the works of a foreign author or composer unless the foreign state or nation of which such author or composer is a citizen or subject grants, either by treaty, convention, agreement, or law, to citizens of the United States similar rights";

And whereas the President is authorized by the said section 8 to determine by proclamation made from time to time the existence of the reciprocal conditions aforesaid, as the purposes of the act may require;

And whereas the President by proclamation dated April 9, 1910, did declare and proclaim that one of the alternative conditions specified in section 8 of the Act of March 4, 1909, was then and from July 1, 1909, had been fulfilled in respect to the subjects of Austria, and that the subjects of Austria were and since July 1, 1909, had been entitled to all the benefits of the said Act other than the benefits of section 1 (e) thereof.

And whereas satisfactory official assurances have been received that in Austria protection of copyright, which is similar to the protection afforded by section 1 (e) of the Act of March 4, 1909, is and since August 1, 1920, has been available to citizens of the United States.

Now, therefore, I, CALVIN COOLIDGE, President of the United States of America do declare and proclaim

That on and after August 1, 1920, the conditions specified in section 1 (e) of the Act of March 4, 1909, existed and were fulfilled in respect to the citizens of Austria and that citizens of Austria are and since August 1, 1920, have been entitled to all the benefits of section 1 (e) of the Act of Congress approved March 4, 1909, including copyright controlling the parts of instruments serving to reproduce mechanically musical works,

Provided, That the enjoyment by any work of the rights and benefits conferred by section 1 (e) of the Act of March 4, 1909, shall be conditional upon compliance with the requirements and formalities prescribed with respect to such works by the copyright laws of the United States.

And provided further, That the provisions of section 1 (e) of the Act of March 4, 1909, in so far as they secure copyright controlling the parts of instruments serving to reproduce mechanically musical works shall apply only to compositions published after August 1, 1920, and registered for copyright in the United States which have not been reproduced within the United States prior to the date of this proclamation on any contrivance by means of which the work may be mechanically performed.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this eleventh day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and forty-ninth.

[SEAL.] CALVIN COOLIDGE.

The act of March 4, 1909, going into effect July 1, 1909, provides that the Catalogue of Copyright Entries "shall be admitted in any court as prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein as regards any copyright registration."

Explanations to be noted by users of this Catalogue.

THE Catalogue of Copyright Entries is published in four parts. Part 3, containing the entries for musical compositions and dramatico-musical compositions, is issued at monthly intervals in twelve numbers each year, and is followed by a complete index for the year. The general arrangement is an alphabet of the titles of the musical works with certain exceptions explained hereafter. The arrangement is alphabetical under the first word of the title (except "a," "an," or "the," or the corresponding foreign articles), and a grouping at the end of the title alphabet of such titles as will not conveniently alphabetize (e. g., titles beginning with numerals, dates, etc.).

EXCEPTIONS.—(1) In the case of editions of classical music instead of scattering them under the titles, each author's works are brought together by an entry under the original composer's name, and for such works search should be made in this number under the following names: Bach (Johann Sebastian); Balfe (Michael William); Beethoven (Ludwig van); Chaminade (Cécile Louise Stéphanie); Chopin (Frédéric François); Delibes (Clement Philibert Léo); Donizetti (Gaetano); Flotow (Friedrich von); Gluck (Christoph Wilibald von); Godard (Benjamin Louis Paul); Grieg (Edvard Hagerup); Handel (Georg Friedrich); Haydn (Franz Josef); Lalo (Édouard Victor Antoine); Liszt (Franz Josef); MacDowell (Edward Alexander); Mascagni (Pietro); Massenet (Jules Émile Frédéric); Mendelssohn-Bartholdy (Jacob Ludwig Felix); Meyerbeer (Giacomo); Moszkowski (Moritz); Mozart (Wolfgang Amadeus); Offenbach (Jacques); Paganini (Niccolo); Palestrina (Giovanni Pierluigi Santo); Raff (Joseph Joachim); Rossini (Gioacchino Antonio); Rubinstein (Anton Gregorovitch); Schubert (Franz Peter); Schumann (Robert Alexander); Thomas (Charles Louis Ambroise); Tschaikowsky (Peter Iljitch); Verdi (Giuseppe); Wagner (Richard).

(2) COLLECTIONS having general titles, such as "Fünf studien," "12 études élémentaires," etc., and pieces published without individual identifying titles, but designating the class of musical work (e. g., "waltz," "dance," "march," "cantata," "schottische," "nocturne," "impromptu," "sonata," "étude," "study," "exercise," etc., without differentiating words and only identifiable by the name of the composer) are entered under the composer's name without cross reference from the titles and search should only be made under the names of the composers.

IMPRINTS.—As the publishers of musical compositions are generally also the claimants of copyright the imprint is omitted, but when the name and address of the publisher differ from those of the copyright proprietor, mention of the fact is made at the end of the title as an imprint giving place of publication and name of publisher.

EXPLANATIONS TO BE NOTED BY USERS OF THIS CATALOGUE.

Piano music is understood to be for two hands unless otherwise stated. Songs are understood to be with piano accompaniment unless otherwise stated. Titles reading "w" and "m" (signifying "words by" and "music by") are to be understood as songs.

Under the act of March 4, 1909, the preliminary entry of titles has been abrogated and registration follows deposit of copies with an application for entry in the Copyright Office.

To save space in the Catalogue, the Copyright notice after each title is abbreviated. The abbreviations used in this part are as follows: "E," Class E, Musical compositions; "D," Class D, Dramatico-musical compositions; "©," implies copyright registration of a published composition, followed by date of publication; "© 1 c.," stands for copyright of an unpublished work, followed by date of receipt in the Copyright Office of the printed or manuscript copy; and "2 c.," for 2 copies, followed by the date of their receipt. In the case of contributions to periodicals only one copy of the issue or issues containing such contributions is required.

A list of coypright renewals and extensions made for musical compositions under section 24 of the act of March 4, 1909, will be found at the end of this issue immediately following the text.

A list of the musical compositions and dramatico-musical compositions used or licensed to be used for the manufacture of parts of instruments serving to reproduce mechanically the musical work, recorded under section 1 (e) of the act of March 4, 1909, follows the list of renewals.

The final number, completing the volume, is followed by a full annual index to both composers and proprietors. The subscription price for Part 3, which must be for the complete calendar year, is $1, payable in advance, to the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C., by postal money order, express order, or New York draft.

NOTICE

The Copyright Act of 1909 provides that of the articles deposited for copyright registration the Librarian of Congress shall determine what books and other articles shall be transferred to the permanent collections of the Library of Congress and what other books or articles shall be transferred to other governmental libraries in the District of Columbia for use therein.

The act further provides that any article undisposed of as above and still remaining on the shelves of the Copyright Office may be returned to the claimant of copyright under the provisions of section 60 of the act.

NOTICE is, therefore, hereby given to any author, copyright proprietor, or other lawful claimant, that in so far as any copyright articles deposited from July 1, 1914, to June 30, 1919, inclusive, are still remaining in the files of the Copyright Office, and are not to be transferred to the Library of Congress or to any other governmental library in the District of Columbia, such books or articles may be returned to the claimant of copyright if requested by such claimant prior to December 31, 1925.

This notice includes any printed and published copyright deposits, such as books, periodicals, dramatic compositions, musical compositions, engravings, cuts or prints, lithographs, photo-engravings, or photographs. Manuscript or typewritten dramas and photographs filed for identifying works of art may not be returned. No maps are available for return.

To secure such possible return the claimant of copyright of record should make formal request for the return of the articles, which must be separately and definitely specified. A suitable blank will be supplied on request. Address REGISTER OF COPYRIGHTS, Library of Congress, Washington, D. C.

RECIPROCAL PROTECTION OF MUSIC AGAINST UNAUTHORIZED REPRODUCTION BY MECHANICAL MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

The United States now has reciprocal copyright protection for music against unauthorized reproduction by mechanical musical instruments in the case of Australia and the territories of Papua and Norfolk Island, Belgium, Canada, Cuba, Denmark, France, Germany, Great Britain, Hungary, Italy, Luxemburg, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, and Sweden. The President's proclamations to this effect were printed in the Catalogue of Copyright Entries, Part 3, vol. 6 (1911), pages v–x of no. 7, and pages iv–v of no. 12; vol. 10 (1915), pages viii–xi of no. 3, and pages viii–ix of no. 4; vol. 12 (1917), pages v–ix of no. 3; vol. 13 (1918) pages vi–xii of no. 5; vol. 15 (1920), pages v–vii of no. 3, and pages vi–xiv of no. 13; vol. 17 (1922), pages vii–xix of no. 6; and vol. 18 (1923), pages vi–vii of no. 3, and pages vi–viii of no. 8.

The copyright convention signed at the Fourth International American Conference at Buenos Aires on August 11, 1910, was proclaimed by the President of the United States on July 13, 1914. This convention is understood to be in effect as between the United States and Bolivia, Brazil, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, and Uruguay.
